GREAT MILITARY SPECTACLE HELD IN GOTHAM TODAY

Flower of U. S. Army is Led Down Fifth Ave.
By Gen. Pershing.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
New York, Sept. 10.—With Pershing at their head and with the cross of war twinkling on their storied banners the First division of regulars marched down Fifth avenue today. The colors of three regiments of infantry were twined with the fourragere of France, symbol of gallantry, and on the breasts of hundreds of marchers were the gay ribbons betokening medals bestowed for heroism.

It was the crowning military spectacle of the world war for New York and it was unique in American annals. Behind the stalwart doughboys, their bayonets gleaming, rumbled field artillery of every type and back of the guns came the divisional trains. In the surging, swinging, rhythmic stream which poured down the avenue were 25,000 men, full panopied for battle—the flower of the American army, the peers of any soldiers in the world.

Pershing Leads Them
At the head of the five-mile line rode the commander of all the soldiers under the stars and stripes. Behind him as a guard of honor swung "Pershing's own," the composite regiment of six-foot infantrymen who had followed him through the flower decked streets of foreign capitals.

Fifth avenue was banked from the far end of Central park to Washington Square with dense masses of humanity. Thousands stood where there was room only for hundreds. Myriads waited for hours under leaden skies, when they knew they had no hope of seeing the procession. Every window and every roof along the way was packed with spectators.

For General Pershing it was the culmination of a long series of scenes of adulation.

Air Rings With Cheers
As the stern visaged warrior, sitting on his horse like a centaur, calm, confident and self-contained, fit successor to Grant, Sherman and Sheridan, every inch a soldier and leader of men, rode through the arch which spans the avenue at 110th street, there arose a cheer which volleyed to the house-tops to be echoed by the tree-clad crags in Central Park. It was the beginning of an ovation such as few Americans have had.

Proud of the gallant young veterans who marched behind him, the commander rode slowly down the avenue before hero-worshipping millions. The brave bronzed veterans were worthy of all the pride their chief could feel. Their regimental flags had never known defeat and under them 5,000 men had died in France.

The grim, heart rending roll of casualties is longer than the roster of the division.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
New York, Sept. 10.—Countless thousands of Americans, flashed with the pride of victory, paid tribute here today in what probably was the city's most impressive military spectacle to the nation's leader in the world war, General John P. Pershing, Commander in Chief of the American Expeditionary Force, and to the far famed First Division.

The sun-burned Missourian, looking as fit as a youthful Indian, despite his 59 years—the soldier who said to the shade of Lafayette at his tomb in Piccadilly—

VOTING TODAY FOR CODE DELEGATES

Every senatorial district in Illinois is today balloting on party candidates for the office of delegate to the Constitutional Convention. Each district is allowed two delegates. The men nominated at today's primary will go before the election on Nov. 4.

In the 35th district, the counties of DeKalb, Lee and Whiteside, there is no contest, and an extremely light vote is very probable for that reason. The only names printed on any ballot are the two republican candidates, Attorney E. H. Brewster of Dixon and Alvin Warren of DeKalb county. Whiteside county has no candidate. No candidates on either the Democratic or Socialist ticket filed petitions, although names may be written in today. The absolute lack of contest aroused practically no interest among the voters in this district.

WILSON SAYS THERE CAN BE PEACE ONLY BY LEAGUE NATIONS

Tells Bismarck Audience That Tour Question of Peace or War.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Bismarck, N. D., Sept. 10.—President Wilson told a Bismarck audience today that the issue involved in his speech making tour for the treaty was "a question of war or peace."

"There was only one way in which peace could be maintained, he said, and that was by such a concert of nations as was proposed in the league of nations."

Should the movement for world concert fail, the president said, the heart of mankind would be overwhelmed by a "despair" which would result in chaos.

"Men in despair don't construct governments," said he, "they destroy governments. If we stay out or if we qualify our acceptance in any way, then the world will say 'there can be no peace.'"

If the world were in disorder, asked the president, who would buy the wheat of the United States?

All Awaits Peace.
All the processes of international economic rehabilitation, he said, waited on a complete peace basis, because the world was waiting, he continued, the great coal fields of Europe were not being worked to capacity and the whole industry of the world was "chilled."

"While we debate," he went on, "all the world is raging today. Why does America hesitate?"

He declared there was no more danger of America staying out of the league eventually than of reversing all the other processes of her history. But it was the delay, he added, that was upsetting affairs everywhere.

League Back of Peace.
Referring to proposals to separate the peace terms from the league covenant, Mr. Wilson said the covenant had been put first in the treaty because without it the rest of the treaty would be worthless. That conclusion was reached unanimously at Paris, asserted Mr. Wilson, because the peace conference realized that having set up a peace settlement, there must be some way to enforce it.

Article 10 Not Binding.
Replying to objections to article 10 of the covenant, Mr. Wilson reiterated that the article had no binding force without the assent of the United States, under the unanimous vote required for action.

"Unless it is our war," he continued, "we can't be dragged into a war without our consent. That's an open and shut proposition; it's the heart of the treaty. You have either got to take it or you have got to throw the world back."

Following the home-coming celebration for Ogle county's world war veterans held at the fairgrounds at Oregon Monday, Labor Day, where neither flag or band were provided for the parade of the country's 1,400 uniformed sons, nor dinner or entertainment prepared for them and their 15,000 friends who also gathered at the fairgrounds, Oregon and persons who are said to have sponsored the entertainment are the target of severe criticism in last week's issues of the weekly papers published in other cities throughout Ogle county.

GRAND JURY TO PROBE CASE OF DELINQUENT GIRL

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Columbus, O., Sept. 10.—Veterans of four American wars today joined in the victory parade of the Grand Army of the Republic, which is holding its national encampment here.

In the line of marchers were several aged Mexican war veterans, riding in automobiles. Hundreds of civil war veterans also rode in machines, but thousands of them marched proudly behind their flags and life and drum corps. Heroes of the Spanish-American and European wars, glad of the opportunity of doing homage to the fast dwindling ranks of civil war fighters, paraded behind the battle flags they carried on foreign fields.

The marchers ranged from mere youths who served in France to the grizzled veterans, many of whom have passed the allotted four score and ten.

In the line, which stretched for miles, were the deep blue uniforms of the Mexican and civil wars, the lighter blue of the Spanish war veterans, the natty blue and white of the navy and the familiar khaki of the recent war.

MORE SOLDIERS CALLED OUT TO POLICE BOSTON

Lawlessness Reigns As Police Strike—Much Property Damaged.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Boston, Sept. 10.—By proclamation Mayor Peters today assumed control of the Boston police department and called upon the governor for troops to assist him in restoring order and maintaining public order during the strike of the police.

Governor Coolidge promptly called out the fourth brigade comprising regiments of infantry and a machine gun company. At the same time Mayor Peters summoned to his assistance the 1,000 soldiers stationed in Boston and forming the tenth regiment, motor corps and a troops of cavalry.

About 4,000 members of the state guard thus were made available for police duty in this city. They were under orders to report at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

The decision of the mayor to call on the state guard was reached about noon after the inadequacy of the emergency arrangements to replace the regular police who struck at roll call yesterday evening, was apparent and reports of last night's rioting and looting reached city hall in increasing volume.

A strike of the city firemen is threatened. President Daniel Looney of the firemen's union said today that the firemen believed the police union should exist and "what labor demands of us we will deliver."

ERMA STEFFEN, 16 Years Old, Leads Life of Shame, is Charge.

Without money, without friends, in a strange community and without a home, 16-year-old Erma Steffen, of La Crosse, Wis., was this morning taken in custody by Chief Van Bibber and her case taken up by State's Attorney Harry Edwards. The girl came to Dixon with the Heth Carnival company as a member of one of the shows and left here with the company, going to New Salem, Ill.

According to her story, during the week stay in Dixon she formed the acquaintance of a few young men and after reaching New Salem, made up her mind to return here, which she did, arriving several days ago. Since that time, according to police reports, she has been on the streets at all hours of the night and stayed at various hotels.

Picked Up This Morning.
She was picked up this morning and taken to the station where she told her story to Chief Van Bibber and Mayor Mark D. Smith and was then taken to the state's attorney office where she repeated the tale of her delinquent conduct. She told State's Attorney Edwards that she left her home at La Crosse early in the summer to go to her former home at Red Wing, Minn., for a visit. Here she met a girl acquaintance from Minneapolis and both joined the Heth shows.

Her father and mother are parted, according to her story, the girl not knowing the whereabouts of her parents or brothers and sisters. Because her father insisted in talking against the government during the late war, she says that he was taken in charge by government officials. Her mother, she claims, is a woman of the world and the last she knew of her, she was in Minneapolis.

Kept In County Jail.
The conditions and surroundings of her life during her short stay in Dixon are deplorable in many respects. She shares no where she goes or is sent as she has no friends, according to her own statement. After hearing her story, the state's attorney ordered her taken to the county jail and cared for until delinquency proceedings may be started in the county court. It is quite probable that from some of the revelations which were brought out in her confession, that her case will also be investigated by the grand jury next week.

Georges Clemenceau, president of the peace conference, then arose and opened the session, asking Dr. Renner to affix his signature to the treaty and annexes and announcing the delegates would then be called in the order in which they were named in the preamble of the document.

GRANGE LEADER PUTS BLAME FOR H. C. L. ON LABOR AND STRIKES

Farmers Getting Short End of Things By Present System.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Albany, N. Y., Sept. 10.—Officials of the New York Grange, representing 125,000 farmers, in a statement issued here today placing responsibility for the high cost of living upon labor, declared that "an economic adjustment must be made if the world is to be fed and agriculture preserved." The indictment of all workers except those engaged in agricultural pursuits is made by Sherman J. Powell and W. N. Giles, master and secretary, respectively, of the grange, who allege that strikes have been an important factor in raising the price of food, clothing and shelter.

"The first factor in a happy life is three meals every day," says the statement. "The next is adequate clothing and housing to keep the body warm. The war has only hastened what every thinking agriculturist has seen for years was surely coming. Rural workers have not received the support and encouragement which the urban workers so easily obtained in the form of better schools, roads, churches, houses, shorter hours and higher wages for work under more favorable conditions. This had the result of steadily drawing from the country its population to an alarming degree. Now, instead of going into a study of our situation and developing a remedy, our laboring brothers of the city purpose to remedy our trouble by arbitrary measures without any real knowledge of the cost of producing the necessities of life."

"No class of Americans with red blood in their veins will stand being told they must labor long hours at inadequate pay in order that another class may have shorter hours and higher wages. Even the faithful farmer, who has always produced sufficient food for all, feels he has about reached the limit, and that no laboring man of the city should find fault if he applies the same rule that his city brother has taught him."

"Why is it that over half our farms have mortgages on them, and that two-thirds are worked by renters? When a class of men demand a higher wage although their labor does not earn it, some one else must pay, and they become dishonest profiteers."

"We here challenge the city laborer to a cost accounting that all the world may see who earns his wage. Let there be an authoritative cost accounting of farm products and a wage scale for labor the base of which shall be its earning power."

"When wheat was $1 a bushel, one bushel paid for a day's work. Wheat, by government fiat, is now $2.25 a bushel, and it now requires from two to three bushels to pay labor for one day's work. Again when wool was 30 cents a pound, the farmer received for a suit of clothes, the farmer received for the product $1.20. Figuring the cost of a suit of clothes at $20, thirteen days labor at $1.50 per day paid for a suit. Today wool is 65 cents a pound, four pounds bringing $2.60, the amount received by the farmer. The same suit of clothing is now $40 and the laborer can obtain a suit by eight days of labor at $5 a day. These comparisons will hold good with every farm product."

Tobacco Growers to Fight Anti Crusade

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Covington, Ky., Sept. 10.—Tobacco growers and buyers of Northern Kentucky plan action to combat the crusade against tobacco by the Anti-Tobacco League.

W. D. Spalding, of Covington, a tobacco merchant, who called a meeting of tobacco men, on Monday, Sept. 8, said the tobacco men intend to organize without further delay and fight the efforts of those behind the anti-tobacco movement. Growers, dealers, buyers and bankers are interested in the plan to prevent disaster to the tobacco trade, Mr. Spalding declared.

Emmet Orr, formerly deputy U. S. Marshal, is making a tour of the 54 Kentucky counties which raise tobacco in the interests of tobacco merchants. Tobacco men, in planning their organization, point to the bill introduced in the last session of the General Assembly of Georgia to prohibit the use of tobacco in that state and legislation against cigarettes in a number of states.

WESTERN POSTAL EMPLOYEES ADOPT NEW WAGE SCALE

First Demands Framed for Meeting to Be Held Sept. 19.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 10.—Increase in salaries to adequately meet the high cost of living; reduction of the number of grades from 10 to five; increased help in handling the mail; that the acts of Congress be not emasculated and that the rulings of the Postmaster general be subject to some other provision, and that all classification of routes be under a single classification are among the demands that will be presented to the Wage Commission by delegates representing the Railway Mail Association at St. Paul, Sept. 19 and 20. Delegates from Chicago, Milwaukee, Portage, La Crosse, Fargo, N. D., Jamestown, N. D., Aberdeen, S. D., Sioux City, Ia., Minneapolis, and St. Paul representing the organization will be present at the hearing.

According to officers of the association the recent system of grading the mail clerks the time for proper recognition of service and promotion requires too long a time before an employee is given the maximum wage.

They also assert that the increased volume of mail since the end of the World war is now being handled by a war force, and that it makes it necessary for the clerks to do extra work.

Regarding the classification of work, officials state, that a clerk who is detailed to a certain district who is unable to advance himself to a maximum salary paid in the service, unless he is granted a transfer.

The following is the proposed salary scale to be recommended:

Substitutes, $1,700 per annum.
1 Grade, $1,900 per annum.
2 Grade, 2,000 per annum.
3 Grade, $2,100 per annum.
4 Grade, $2,300 per annum.
5 Grade, $2,500 per annum.
Clerks in charge, $2,800 per annum.

The Wage commission will devote but one day to the hearing and examination of testimony of the Railway Mail clerks. The other day will be given over to hearing of testimony of the Traffic department of the Mail division.

DIXON ELKS DEFEAT STERLING TWO TIMES IN BASEBALL TUESDAY

Neighbors Were No Match for Star Local Team at Great Picnic.

The Sterling Elks went down in bitter defeat before the Bills from Dixon at Brown's Beach east of Rock Falls yesterday afternoon in a baseball game which resulted in a score of 28 to 3. Bert Greene and Frank Bovey formed the battery for the locals and did very effective work. Stratton held down the first sack, Stuart Netz, performed at second, Doc Evans at short, Elmer Rice at third, Wheeler in left, Bill Slothower in center and Charley Miller in right.

A total of eight runs were scored by the Dixon players in the first and in the second, 15 men crossed home plate for tallies. The Dixon Elks hit and fielded like champions and held their opponents without mercy. The game went for seven innings when the Dixon players were forced to quit and regain some of their wind. Miller retired from the right field position in favor of a newly discovered baseball phenomena who has been in training for some time.

Bill Ford was the new discovery and made one error this being the only chance he had. The ball started toward Bill and Bill began running in a circle, the ball going over his head and lighting in the weeds.

After the game was over the disgruntled Sterling promoters believed that vengeance could be secured by selecting another team and trying it again. After a rest for the Dixon Elks, the Sterling hosts presented an entirely new lineup and played five innings, the score being 5 to 4 in favor of Dixon. Bill Slothower and Bill Ford were unable to play and were receiving the first aid treatment when Dementown's veteran athlete was proposed to fill up the vacancy.

Billy Jones was rushed into the breach and played the game for the incapacitated pair in his old style, hitting the ball hard and frequently and fielding a sensational game. About 25 Dixon Elks accompanied the team and this representation were loud in their cheering which was led by Lee LeFever and Johnny Ford.

The picnic was a success in every way, with ample entertainment and plenty to eat. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock and all attending came away thoroughly satisfied. Kit Carson and Billy Jones won the northern Illinois amateur championship at horse shoe pitching, defeating all comers.

A GOOD FRIEND

A good friend stands by you when in need. Dixon people tell how Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test. N. W. Beal of 620 College Ave., Dixon, endorsed Doan's six years ago and again confirms the story. Could you ask for more convincing testimony?

"For a long time I suffered from kidney trouble and it showed itself in various ways, hays Mr. Beal. "I had rheumatic twinges and my back and limbs were stiff and lame. When I bent over, I could hardly straighten and I was greatly annoyed. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Prescott & Schildberg's Drug store and they gave me wonderful relief in a short time. They finally entirely freed me of kidney complaint." (Statement given May 21 1912).

LASTING RESULTS.
On April 30, 1917 Mr. Beal said: "I have been free from kidney trouble since I used Doan's Kidney Pills. I am glad to again give them my endorsement."

LEE COUNTY WAR MOTHERS—

The Lee County Council of War Mothers held the first meeting of the year at G. A. R. hall yesterday afternoon, with but twenty-seven members present, the large number of absentees accounted for by the extreme warmth of the day and the fact that so many are still away on vacations.

Repeating of the Lord's prayer opened the meeting, which was presided over by the president, Mrs. Tryon Rosbrook. "America" was sung in unison, with Mrs. Coakley at the piano. Reports of the secretary, Mrs. Clayton, and the treasurer, Mrs. Brenner, were heard and were very gratifying. The chairman of the various committees also gave reports of the work concluded in the past year. The Relief committee reported having one sick soldier on its list at present. The members of this committee are Mrs. Austin George, chairman, Mrs. David Horton, and Mrs. George Stitzel. Mrs. Rosbrook, the president, told of plans made by the Council to do its part in establishing a Memorial Day fund for Dixon, in which the other patriotic societies are similarly assisting. Mrs. Rosbrook also told of the Ogle county reception for its soldiers.

Mrs. Daisy Brenner was named as delegate to the national convention to be held in Baltimore, October 7, 8 and 9, with Mrs. J. Wilbur Crawford named as alternate. The president, Mrs. Rosbrook, will also represent the society at the convention.

Amalgamation of all organizations of women relatives of the men and women who served in the United States army and navy during the world war will be proposed at this second annual convention of the War Mothers of America. The call for the convention of the War Mothers, just sent out, invites all organizations of a similar nature to attend the convention and join in the formation of a new body for which a new name may be selected.

Representatives of five other organizations besides the War Mothers, including Daughters of Liberty, Women of American Patriots, Women's Patriotic League of America, American Mothers of National Defenders and Sammie's Mothers have been asked to participate in the movement for consolidation.

The Baltimore chapter of the War Mothers of America is making vast preparations for entertaining the convention. Several speakers of national prominence will be included in the program and there will be several social features.

Mrs. A. W. Roach, acting national president, of Richmond, Ind., reports that large delegations will represent all the chapters of the War Mothers and she has been in communication with officials of the other organizations urging them to attend the meeting here. Twenty-seven states were represented by delegates sent to the first annual convention held at Evansville, Ind., last September.

Among the social features already planned by the Baltimore chapter is a visit to Annapolis and the governor's home, automobile rides to Evergreen, the Red Cross school for soldiers blind during the war, a trip through Druid Hill Park and a visit to Johns Hopkins University.

The Lee County Council's certificate of membership in the national body was framed during the summer by Walter Preston, who made a gift of frame and labor to the council. For this the council was very grateful and extend to Mr. Preston their sincere appreciation. As far as the Lee County Council has been able to discover, it was the first to organize within the state of Illinois, thought at the time both Indiana and Iowa had flourishing chapters.

Expressions of hope for a larger attendance was heard after the meeting, which closed with the singing of The Star Spangled Banner.

MONKEYING WITH THE TIME.

It is an agreeable fiction that the daylight saving law really was a law.
No one was obligated to observe it if he was opposed to doing so. No one,
so far as we know, was penalized for failing to observe it. While it was in force, there seemed to have been as many kinds of time as there were kinds of watches. Representative Lankford
of Georgia told the house that:

"A man in my district got out of bed at 8 o'clock, caught a 7:45, rode fourteen miles to Douglas, Ga., reaching there at 7:30. He ate breakfast at 7:15, made some purchases and caught a train back home at 7 o'clock and reached home at 7:30. According to our different times he was gone from home an hour and a half and got back home thirty minutes before
he started."

The right of every man to run his clock as he likes has all the force of a constitutional enactment, and it is probably just as well that Uncle Sam
withdraw from the ridiculous position
of trying to regulate that right, and
getting nowhere in doing it.

THE APPEAL TO CAESAR.

President Wilson's announcement of a speaking tour of the country in behalf of the Treaty of Versailles, has been followed by the announcement of a similar tour by Senator Hiram Johnson
and other opponents of the pending agreement.

In these two swings around the circle,
in the estimates of support and opposition in the senate, the real fate of the treaty may be decided. The stampede
of curious crowds to see and hear national leaders will decide nothing. But through the pauses in the cheering both sides will hear now and then the enthusiastic voice of the real people, who
in this year of grace 1919 must be the real treaty makers.

"I stand at Caesar's judgment seat
—I appeal until Caesar," said St. Paul,
after two years waiting for the trial of his case by the Roman government.
The Caesar of today does not reside in Rome or in Washington, in the White House or in the Capitol. The supreme decision rests with the people of the north, the south, the east and the west.

It is very timely and wise that both parties in the great controversy at Washington should appeal to the supreme rulers. The people of every section are showing that they feel that this is their treaty, their business. The most machine-ridden or machine-trusting politician must see that a false decision on this question would be ruinous to the person or the party in error.

The president and the senate will probably be glad to suspend controversies over prerogative. Both of them stand at Caesar's judgment seat.—Exchange.

Miss I. M. Boss was married recently,
according to the papers. She changed
her name, but the spirit is still there,
no doubt.

Often the majority has considerable sense, although the minority never thinks so.

Did you ever notice that the day after
a day off is an off day?

When we put food profiteers in jail
we should make them pay board while
in there.

There seems to be no closed season
on U. S. airplanes in Mexico.

In Wisconsin, a bill giving fifteen millions of dollars to discharged soldiers as bonuses is receiving the O. K.
of the voters in a ratification vote.
Illinois might well profit by Wisconsin's example.

TERMS IMPOSED
ON AUSTRIA ARE ACCEPTED TODAY

There was a very animated conversation
for several minutes, pending the arrival of M. Clemenceau.
Mr. Polk was accompanied by his wife. After the other American delegates were seated Ignace Jan Paderewski, the premier of Poland, entered the room, his arrival provoking a flurry of conversation.
The signing of the treaty was finished at 11:15 o'clock. M. Clemenceau then announced that the session was closed.

Today's ceremony at St. Germain
brings to a close three months' of negotiation between the Austrian republic
and the allied and associated powers.
An incomplete draft of the conditions of peace was handed the Austrian delegates at St. Germain on June 2, the revised sections relating to the military,
financial reparation and some boundary
features of the treaty being presented on July 20. The Austrian government laid its counter proposals before the peace conference last month and the answer to the Austrian delegation was made on September 2.

China which did not sign the treaty
with Germany because of the inclusion
in that convention of the section giving
to Japan the German rights and concessions in the province of Shantung, announced last week she would sign the treaty with Austria so that she would be able to join the league of nations.

Represents New Republic
The Austrian republic, representatives of which signed the treaty today, is very different from the proud Austro-Hungarian empire of 1914. The former provinces of Bohemia and Moravia and a part of the duchy of Teschen now
form the republic of Czechoslovakia.
The remainder of Teschen and most of Galicia have been incorporated into Poland. The new Ukrainian republic takes certain sections in eastern Galicia, and the former Austrian crown land of Bukovina. Austria along the historic border between those portions of the former empire but has herself lost parts of the province of Transylvania, which have been awarded to Rumania.

Slavs Get Big Territory
On the south the provinces of Carinthia, Dalmatia, Carniola, Croatia and Slovakia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, as well as parts of Styria are formed in conjunction with Serbia into the new Yugo-Slovakia kingdom. Parts of Tyrol
are taken over by Italy, the boundaries
of which are also extended south as to include most of the Istrian peninsula
and a strip along the western frontier
of the province of Carinthia.

All that remains of the former empire
is what is known as German Austria,
including upper and lower Austria and parts of Styria and of Tyrol.

Since the close of hostilities there has been a movement afoot by which Austria would be annexed by Germany. By one of the most important clauses of the treaty signed today this is forbidden.

Indemnities Not Named
The treaty does not stipulate an exact sum to be paid in indemnities. The amount will be fixed by the reparations
commission on or before May 1, 1921.
The commission also being empowered to determine the details of the payments which will extend over a period
of thirty years.

This sum must be paid by the Austrian republic and it is not to be apportioned among the component parts of the country which have been declared independent.

In addition to paying indemnities,
Austria must also replace ton for ton
all ships lost by the allies through the activities of the Austrian navy during the war and physically restore invaded areas. She is also to deliver up to allied countries works of art and objects of historic value carried away by the Austrians during the conflict.

Austria's army is reduced to 30,000
men on a purely voluntary basis and all her military establishments are cut down. The entire fleet is to be handed over to the allies, all ships under construction being broken up and the salvage is not to be used except for industrial purposes.

The economic clauses and those relative to freedom of transit are similar to those of the German pact.

Questions relative to the disposition of the city of Fiume are not settled in the Austrian treaty but Austria renounces in favor of the allied and associated powers all her rights and titles
over territories formerly belonging to her, which, though outside the new frontiers of Austria have not at present been assigned to any state. She undertakes to accept any settlement made in regard to those territories.

SAVES WASTAGE OF LIGHT

Device That Automatically Turns Off Power Has Been Found to Be of Real Value.

One of the considerable sources of fuel waste is the unnecessary burning of electric lights. A large percentage of lights are used chiefly for limited
periods, as for instance in cloak rooms. They are turned on and then heedlessly left burning. Thus we are constantly recommended to shut off
needless lights as a matter of national saving.

An invention designed to remedy
this condition is the work of J. E.
Lewis of New York. By pushing a button the light is turned on and glows
for a predetermined period—say, five or ten minutes—and then is automatically cut off. The device has been tested and found practical and seems useful in the way of checking electric light waste.

Marine Fireflies.

The bay of Toyama, Japan, is the scene of a peculiar phenomenon that occurs each year in April and May.
The cause of it is an almost limitless
swarm of cuttlefish that shine like glowworms.

The fish are tiny, says a writer in the Boston Transcript, and when they meet with anything objectionable they emit a wonderful display of phosphorescence. Every spring the coasts of Toyama swarm with these little creatures, and fishermen go out with special nets to catch them.

When caught in the meshes the fish
emit their light and cause the nets to sparkle as if charged with electricity.
The people regard the sight as wonderful, and rush in great excitement to see it. Pleasure boats are in demand on those occasions, and it is a favorite courtesy to invite a friend
to an evening of entertainment in watching the sparkling cuttlefish.

Precious Salt.

What is known as "radium" is a radium salt, usually either radium bromide or radium chloride, sometimes radium sulphate. Tiny grains of these salts are extremely precious
and are usually sealed up in little glass
bulbs.

The radium in one of the first bulbs
that were received in London had a curious history. A physician in Portland place was applying the bulb to a patient when he accidentally let it fall,
and a moment after crushed it under his foot. The value of the radium to the physician was very great. He removed his boots from his feet and cut
out a square of his valuable carpet.
He had boots and carpet burned, and out of the ashes refined the original radium salt.

Steel and Iron.

Steel is a kind of iron which can easily be hammered out thin without cracking and can be made extremely hard by being heated and then cooled quickly. It is different from ordinary iron because of the amount of carbon in it. Wrought iron contains less carbon than steel and so it cannot be made so hard; cast iron contains more
and so is brittle.

What Game Is Meant?
"In an angry frenzy at St. Louis, Mr.
Wilson exclaimed 'let them show me
how they will prove that, having gone
into an enterprise, they are not absolutely contemptible quitters if they do not see the game through.' To what 'game' does Mr. Wilson refer? Is it the game he started to play in Europe
and did not finish, or is it the game
that was played for him and in which finally he supinely acquiesced? Is it the American game that he so finely phrased when he went to Europe, or is it the European or Asiatic game?

America Not Quitter.

"The American people are not quitters. They rose majestically and won a great war. They destroyed a ruthless militarism and they did not quit until they had done the job. When they had played their game and done their job,
Mr. Wilson commenced his game at Paris and his game was for certain definite objects, certain specific plainly phrased principles, and in the playing of his game the American people were ready to back him up to the utmost and
play it through, no matter what it cost.
Who quit the game? We stood behind him when he abandoned open covenants
of peace, openly arrived at, and in their abandonment it was not the American people who were contemptible quitters."

"And thus it was that the game was played in Paris and the game was the game of the sinister, cynical European and Asiatic diplomacy, in which the American people neither have a part or want a part. This today is the game of which Mr. Wilson speaks, and this today is the game which Mr. Wilson plays and all who will not play with him he calls 'contemptible quitters.'"

EARTH'S RICHEST RUBY MINES

Center of World's Store of Precious Stones Is Known to Be Located in Upper Burma.

The world's ruby center is Mogok, in upper Burma, some 70 miles north of Mandalay. Here are the great ruby mines, one of Burma's most valuable monopolies, says the London Weekly Telegraph. Indeed, not only does this country produce the finest of these coveted gems, but they are recovered
in such quantities as to enable her to dominate the market.

Few are aware that, weight for weight, a ruby is more valuable than a diamond. It is estimated that one the color of pigeon's blood, weighing five carats, will sell for ten times the value of a diamond of the same weight. Furthermore, the price increases with the size of the stone.

As the "byon," or earth containing the coveted gems, is taken from the ground it is placed in a great revolving
tub. Here it is screened and all loose earth removed by water. The residue is then tipped on the sorting table. A white overseer carefully examines the pile, selecting the true gems from the worthless debris. If he's lucky he may at one sorting find gems worth many thousands of dollars, while on the other hand the yield may be but a hundred dollars or two. The yearly output of rubies from these mines totals
about $400,000.

into that old contest over land titles.

Can't Repudiate Promises.

The president asked whether any one thought the United States could stay out of the league without being "hated"
and intrigued against by the other nations. Should the American nation refuse to accept the treaty, he asserted,
it would be in the position of repudi-
ating its promises to those who fought
the war and of saying it did not like what had been accomplished by its armed force. The peoples of Europe,
said the president, "are in a revolutionary sort of autocracy for another."

SPEEDING WEST TODAY.

On Board President Wilson's Special Train, Sept. 10.—President Wilson was heading due west today on one of the longest legs of his country wide speaking tour for the peace treaty. Nearly
the whole day was given over to travel,
the only stop on his schedule being a short one at Bismarck, N. D.

After his strenuous day in St. Paul and Minneapolis Mr. Wilson arranged to sleep late while his special was speeding a cross the North Dakota
plains. In order to protect his voice Dr. Grayson again prescribed against rear platform addresses at way stations.

Word of the approach of the presidential special had traveled ahead, however, and in many small towns and even at country cross roads knots of people were found waiting for a glimpse of the chief executive and Mrs. Wilson.
They were out on the rear platform in most cases to wave at the crowds, and the president shook hands wherever a brief halt was made to change engines.

PETERS CONTROLS CITY.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Boston, Sept. 10.—Mayor Peters announced at noon today that he had taken over control of the police department from Commissioner Curtis, a state appointee, and had called upon
state guard organizations to assist in maintaining order.

LAWLESSNESS IS RAMPANT.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Boston, Sept. 10.—Lawlessness was rampant in Boston today as a result of the policemen's strike. Without adequate police protection, private citizens
were left to their own resources to protect their lives and property.

Since the police struck at 5:45 o'clock
yesterday afternoon there has been no
organized police power able to cope with the situation that last night approached anarchy and today appeared to grow more serious as the inadequacy of the makeshift arrangements
intended to preserve public order became obvious to the criminally inclined.

At 11:15 a. m. today the state guard
had not been called out and so far as could be learned only a handful of higher officers in the police department and
an indefinite number of "volunteers"
were making an effort to prevent disorder.

Last night the city was virtually abandoned to the hoodlum and criminal.
For some reason not publicly explained the volunteer force which it had been expected would go on duty

when the police quit, was not called out
until this morning.

The banks and larger mercantile institutions were protected by their own guards but the small retailer was at the mercy of mobs which included in their number all elements from the purely mischievous to the downright criminal. Store windows to a number estimated at 300 were smashed in and goods by the armful carried away. Police Superintendent Crowley placed the damage done during the night at $300,000.

Police superintendent Crowley has ordered the discontinuance of the sale
of firearms during the strike.

Last night John A. Scully, of Brookline, was shot in the back of the head
and dangerously injured by a police sergeant who was pursuing a mob that had sacked several stores in the Back Bay district. Thomas Innis, a street car conductor, was wounded in the leg
by someone in a crowd. A janitor in the leather district was stabbed by a man who attempted to break into his hospital with a bullet in his back.

The few policemen struggling to uphold the law made 200 arrests. Charges of larceny ranged from the snatching
of women's handbags to wholesale theft
of wagon loads of goods from the stores.

STORE OPEN WEDNESDAY EVENINGS

CASTLES OF FORMER EMPEROR AND CROWN PRINCE ARE LOOTED

Priceless Articles Are Stolen and Sold to Curio Collectors.

Berlin, Aug. 20.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Thefts from the castles of former Emperor William and the Crown Prince Frederick, not only during the Revolution but during the January and March riots of the Spartacists and Communists, are still engaging the attention of the police.

Slowly the authorities have been able to trace some of the valuable that were looted by the sailors who occupied the ex-emperor's palace and that of his son for a time but an immense amount has been taken from Berlin by underground methods and may never be recovered.

One of the most important "finds" can be laid to a Hamburg professor. A marine had stolen two Cranch portraits from the imperial castle, failed to get rid of them in Berlin and finally sold them to a questionable dealer in Hamburg. The dealer approached the professor, who recognized the canvases, gave a check but stopped payment, and notified the Finance Ministry. The paintings were thereupon confiscated.

There are many more not yet recovered, however, including a little male figure in wood dating from 1555, a Katharina von Bora by an unknown artist, also of wood, a "warrior with ladies" by Palamedes and a score of other carvings and paintings, principally by German artists, from the sixteenth centuries.

From the palace of Wilhelm I there have been stolen figures in bronze and ivory, a pastel of Queen Louise, vases, letter containers, silver trays, Japanese silk portiers and curtains, decorative weapons, medallions, watches and mirrors.

Turkish Women Are Abandoning Veils

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Philadelphia, Sept. 10.—Sergeant "Mike" Dorizas, former University of Pennsylvania wrestler and football player, as interpreter for the American Mandate Commission, has been making a tour of Turkey and recent letters from him give interesting accounts not only of his personal experiences but of the vast changes that have taken place in the Ottoman Empire since the war.

"In Constantinople," he writes, "one sees all kinds of soldiers, but the city is dead. The harbor is full of warships of the Allied nations; the shops are nearly empty and the few remaining commodities are very costly. Food, though, is not more expensive than in France."

"The thing that impressed me most in the old capital was seeing Turkish women going about with their faces uncovered and riding in carriages with men and walking with men. Things are changing even in Turkey. I suspect the presence of the Allied troops and the Allied men-of-war has made the women more courageous."

From Damascus Sergeant Dorizas wrote: "The men of the commission are working very hard and I am sure great good will come from their efforts. The commission is received everywhere with open arms and all want America to take an interest in their affairs."

OBITUARY.

MRS. MARION E. BATES.

Mrs. Marion E. Bates, who had been living at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jarvis Leake, 316 East Second street, passed away at 4:15 o'clock the morning of Sept. 8, 1919, at the age of 91 years, three months and 13 days.

Mrs. Bates, who had been a great sufferer from rheumatism, not being able to walk for the last five years, has lived with her daughter the last eleven years, since the death of her husband. Her death was caused by the infirmities of age.

Marion E. Brackett was born at Braintree, Vt., May 26, 1828, and was married to Hiram B. Bates, May 13, 1850. To this union was born four children: Armina H., Ida J., Charles H., and George D. of Lincoln, Ill. Armina and Charles died at the ages of 12 and 5 years respectively.

Mrs. Bates and her husband lived the first five years of their married life at Westford, Vt. In the fall of 1867 they moved to Illinois, living two years at Temperance Hill then bought a farm on Crombie Lane near Amboy where they resided until the death of Mr. Bates when the mother went to live with her daughter.

Mrs. Bates joined with the M. E. church in 1868 and has lived a consistent Christian life since. She loved to do a kindness as her many friends will testify. Always hospitable, there was never a person more ready to go to the homes of sickness or death to help in any way in her power. Generous to a fault she will long be remembered with love and respect by all who knew her. "She hath done what she could."

Interment was made at Temperance Hill by the side of her late husband.

Arctic Night.

Viewed solely as a matter of optics, the Arctic night is as dark as any night. Explorers in high latitudes say, however, that there are many alleviations of the obscurity. The stars flash keenly, the moon comes along in a regular succession of phases, the snow surface reflects the utmost absence of light, and the aurora borealis is the finest kind of illuminant. Explorers all agree that their men pass the winter night without much difficulty if only there be means of amusement.

COMMITTEE ASKS 45 AMENDMENTS, 4 RESERVATIONS

usefully employed" as "they now are in dividing and sharing southeastern Europe and Asia Minor."

Can Bring Germans Back

German delegates, the report contends, could easily be brought to Paris and as Germany is not a member of the league she need not be consulted about changes of the covenant.

At the outset the majority report deals at length with criticisms of delay and points out that whereas the peace conference took six months to agree on the treaty the senate foreign relations committee had had 45 working days. Demands for speed "in the most important subject that ever came before the senate of the United States" the report says were "largely the work of the administration and its newspaper organs."

Senate Has Responsibility

Recalling the senate's responsibility as equal with the president's, the report recounts the difficulties the foreign relations committee experienced in getting information on the treaty, being obliged to send to Paris for maps, being compelled to get "imperfect information from press reports" and having at its disposal few official documents. Collateral treaties having a bearing, the report says, the committee was unable to get.

While criticism for delay has been aimed at the foreign relations committee, the report points out no action has been taken by France, Japan or Italy.

Trading Argument Faded

The argument that the treaty should be ratified that trading with Germany might begin, the report dismisses as "rather faded" and declares the United States has been trading with Germany since the signing of the armistice. The statement that trade cannot be resumed until the treaty is ratified is characterized as a "mere delusion."

Wants Equal Votes

"The first amendment offered by the committee relates to the league. It is proposed so to amend the treaty as to secure for the United States a vote in the assembly of the league equal to that of any other power. Great Britain now has under the name of the British empire one vote in the council of the league. She has four additional votes in the assembly of the league for her self-governing dominions and colonies, which are most properly members of the league and signatories to the treaty. She also has the vote of India, which is neither a self-governing dominion nor a colony, but merely a part of the empire and which apparently was simply put in as a signatory and member of the league by the peace conference because Great Britain desired it. Great Britain also will control the votes of the kingdom of Hejaz and of Persia. With these last two of course we have nothing to do. But if Great Britain has six votes in the league assembly no reason has occurred to the committee and no argument had been made to show why the United States should not have an equal number. If other countries like the present arrangement, that is not our affair; but the committee failed to see why the United States should have but one vote in the assembly of the league when the British empire has six."

Try to Avert Wrong

"Amendments 39 to 44, inclusive, transfer to China the German lease and rights, if they exist, in the Chinese province of Shantung, which are given by the treaty to Japan. The majority of the committee were not willing to have these votes at any stage in the proceedings in favor of the consummation of what they consider a great wrong. They cannot assent to taking the property of a faithful ally and handing it over to another ally in fulfillment of a bargain made by other powers in a secret treaty. It is a record which they are not willing to present to their fellow citizens or leave behind them for the contemplation of their children.

"Amendment number 2 is simply to provide that where a member of the league has self-governing dominions and colonies which are also members of the league, the exclusion of the disputants under the league rules shall cover the aggregate vote of the member of the league and its self-governing dominions and parts of empire combined if any one of them is involved in the controversy.

Keep Off Commissions

"The remaining amendments, with a single exception, may be treated as one, for the purpose of all alike is to relieve the United States from having representatives on the commission established by the league which deal with questions in which the United States has and can have no interest and in which the United States has evidently been inserted by design. The exception is amendment No. 45, which provides that the United States shall have a member of the reparation commission but that such commissioner of the United States cannot, except in the case of shipping, where the interests of the United States are directly involved, deal with or vote upon any other questions before that commission except under instructions from the government of the United States.

pus: "Lafayette, we are here!" and whose army of 1,250,000, the largest force of Americans ever to fight on foreign soil, turned the tide of possible Allied defeat into victory — today led down Fifth avenue 22,000 men of the First Division in a procession which stirred the blood of every spectator.

Pershing Guard Leads

Ahead of the bronzed veterans, mostly "reglars" who had been abroad nearly two years and a quarter, and whose fighting was the admiration of every poilu and British Tommy, was General Pershing's guard of honor a regiment of 3,600 men picked from all seven of the American regular army divisions in France. This unique contingent, known as "Pershing's Own," and composed of two companies from each regiment of the division represented, the companies in turn being formed of one squad from each company in the regiment, was a special feature of the parade.

Accompanying General Pershing at the head of the division rode Major General Edward F. McGlachlin, commanding, and with him two other former commanders of the First, Major General William L. Sibert, who took the troops to France and Lieutenant General Robert L. Bullard who took them into action and later relinquished command to take a higher post. With them were a host of other officers, including Brigadier General Frank Parker of Charleston, S. C., and other commanders some of whom saw their first active service with the division in France.

47 States Represented

The troops in line represented 47 states of the Union and several of the insular possessions, and among the marchers were more than 4,000 "old time" doughboys whose only recorded home is the United States army. Trudging along under the weight of full combat equipment, every pack in place, rifles clean and bayonets gleaming in the sun, the fighters presented a picture of aggressiveness and force. From 110th street, where the parade started, to the Washington Arch, where it disbanded, the throngs along the curbs kept up almost tumultuous cheering.

"There comes the Sixth Field Artillery!" some one shouted. A few minutes later this famous organization, Battery C of which on October 23, 1917, fired the first shot at the Germans, came into sight and was wildly acclaimed.

Home Folks on Hand

Delegations of home folks from Southern New York, Connecticut, New Jersey, Delaware and Eastern Pennsylvania, whose 2,700 sons or kinsmen were in the First Division, were on hand to do them honor along with the other sections of the country. Many of these fighters, members of the 18th Infantry, wore the French fourragere, the red and green cord signifying that the Croix de Guerre with palm had been twice conferred for conspicuous gallantry in action. The fourragere was bestowed upon the 18th by Brigadier General Braquet of the French army, while officers and men were lined up on the decks of the transport Mobile just before it sailed from Brest.

An epitome of America's fighting machine in Europe, the First Division presented what military men say was the first parade of its kind in the country's history. That is, not only were the doughboys equipped with rifles, bayonets, packs, helmets, canteens, belts and ammunition, but every piece of the Division's artillery was in line, as well as the Ammunition Trains, the rolling kitchens and other paraphernalia of a modern fighting unit.

Horses, Mules Decorated

Even the horses and mules, many of which had served throughout the war, were decorated with service stripes and all of the First's insignia, just as it was marked in France, was shown. The Division's flags all bore the Croix de Guerre with which it was honored by the French nation, the 28th Infantry having two of those emblems to its credit.

Machine guns of various types and sizes, tanks and mortars, grenade-throwing devices were parts of the parade exhibits and were viewed with proud wonderment by the crowds. Then there were the anti-aircraft guns whose muzzles often pointed skyward as if to bring down hostile flyers.

Among the fighters who won distinction for gallantry and were promoted on the field and who figured in the parade was Lieutenant Colonel Clarence Heubner of the 28th who was a regular army sergeant when the war started. He was wounded at Soissons and left the hospital to re-enter the battle. Another was Supply Sergeant Powell of Company M., also of the 28th who, despite his noncombatant duties, frequently volunteered and in one engagement gained his objective after every enlisted man and ranking officer in his detachment had been wounded or killed.

The units in the parade, in their order, besides the Division Headquarters, and Headquarters' Troop, Quartermaster and other similar branches, were the 1st Machine Gun Battalion; 2nd Field Signal Battalion; 1st Engineers and Engineer Train; 1st Infantry Brigade headquarters; 16th and 18th Infantry; 2nd Machine Gun Battalion; 2nd Infantry Brigade Headquarters; 26th and 28th Infantry; 3rd Machine Gun Battalion; 1st Field Artillery Brigade headquarters; 5th, 6th and 7th Field Artillery; Train Headquarters; Mobile Veterinary Unit; Military Police; Motorized Battalion; 1st Ammunition Train; 1st Supply

Train; Sanitary Train; Field Hospital and Motor Transport Corps.

NEW YORK CROWDED TODAY.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
New York, Sept. 10.—General John J. Pershing at the head of the first division equipped as a fighting unit furnishing the triumphal climax of New York's war time parades attracted hundreds of thousands of New Yorkers and out of town visitors to the narrow confines of Fifth avenue today.

Clouds hovering above the gaily decorated avenue, threatening momentarily to add the discomfort of rain and the cold westerly wind failed to dampen the ardor of the spectators. Hours before time for the parade to start found every transit line leading to Fifth avenue congested and the six thousand policemen on duty early experienced difficulty in handling the throng.

PERSHING'S HORSE BARRED.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, D. C., Sept. 10. — "Kidron," General Pershing's sorrel war horse will be unable to share the glory of victory in America with his famous commander as he did in the European capitals. An iron clad quarantine rule of the department of agriculture is the cause.

While his master is being idolized by a grateful people in the principal cities of the nation, Kidron will be forced for five months to play the ignoble role of "patient" in the quarantine quarters at Newport News, where veterinarians will watch to determine if he has a "catching disease."

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE DIRECTORS MEET AT CAPITAL

Final Plans Will Be Made Today for Big Service Fund.

Delegates from every Illinois county who will take active parts in the Salvation Army Home Service drive of Sept. 22 to 29, will attend a conference with Gov. Frank O. Lowden, to be held today in Springfield.

The meeting will be held in Gov. Lowden's chambers in the capitol, and the governor will preside.

The purpose of the meeting, as outlined in a letter sent out by F. S. Peabody, chairman of the state executive committee, is to confer with representative men of each county regarding the final plans for the work in Illinois. The campaign in Illinois is a part of the national chairman, and Cornelius Vanderbilt, who served as chairman for New York City during New York's home service campaign.

"The splendid work done for our boys in France by the Salvation Army, together with their sacrifice here at home for the poor and distressed, carries an obligation of personal service to which leading men everywhere are generously responding," Mr. Peabody's letter read. "This will be the only meeting of representatives from all counties, and Gov. Lowden and I are specially desirous that you should attend as the representative of your county."

THOUSANDS FLOCK TO SEE FIRST BRITISH "HUSH" SHIP AT DOCK

Anti-Submarine Vessel Showed to Public at Peace Celebration.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

London, Aug. 20.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—Thousands of persons waited in line for hours to get a close-up peep at the P-31, a British anti-submarine "mystery" ship which was moored off Queen Victoria Embankment for a two days' public inspection at the close of the official Peace celebration. The P-31 was the first of the "hush" craft the public was permitted to see at close range.

It was only ten yards from the embankment to the quaint looking U-boat fighter, but the intervening distance had to be made in small boats. These each carried eight passengers. It required but a few strokes of the oars to make the "trip"—and the fare was one shilling, so the waterman's pockets soon were bulging but there was no complaint about "profiteering."

Among the thousands of curious who swarmed over the vessel were a number of American soldiers. Some of them took a peculiar interest in the guides' explanations and comment on the boat's "trick" fittings—her geared turbines, gadgets, depth-charge throwers and paravanes. It recalled to them a night of peril through which they passed from Southampton or Winchester across the submarine and mine-infested English channel, en route to Le Havre or some other French port—and the war. That night of fearful expectancy passed safely, they had marvelled at the efficiency of the conveying craft which they knew had been off in the darkness somewhere, plunging through rolling breakers, eager for an encounter—with its frequent aftermath of "oil and bubbles" from a vanquished undersea boat.

But as these doughty spectators heard a member of the crew of the "hush" ship say: "She does everything but loop-the-loop," and saw others demonstrate parts of the ship's fighting equipment hitherto kept secret, they understood why they had been so secure.

The "P-31" is 244 feet long, with narrow beam, seven-foot draught and equipped with independent engines, fore and aft, that can speed her through heavy seas at twenty-three knots an hour. Built high forward and low at the stern, the vessel has somewhat the appearance of a submarine—an effect that her designers intended. "Fritz sometimes would think she was a 'sub' and would open fire on her—but when she slowed around in her own length and got into action, Heine was sorry he had spoken," said a sailor who had been through eight engagements on the fighter. There had been other brushes with enemy craft, he explained, adding, "but unless you can bring home a bit of the corpse, the Admiralty say, 'Not Proven.' Its no use to tell them about the 'oil and bubbles'—they're no proof because Fritz used to release oil and bubbles to make us waste ammunition."

635,000 Germans Are Still War Prisoners in Allied Countries

Weimar, Aug. 20.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—Daniel Stuecklen, a member of the National Assembly, recently told the Social Democratic party of which he is a leader that there were 340,000 German prisoners of war in French hands, 195,000 in English hands, 50,000 in American and 20,000 military and 30,000 civil prisoners in Siberia.

The French, Stuecklen asserted, treated German prisoners more harshly than any of the other nations. He said there were no complaints to make regarding the treatment of prisoners by the authorities of the other countries.

Private German charities, he announced, had raised 10,000,000 marks for prisoners and the government had provided 150,000,000 marks for them. "Every prisoner on returning home," he said, "will receive 300 marks relief money unless he is accused of treason in deserting from the army and going over to the enemy. Six hundred marks will be given prisoners in exceptional cases if the community is willing to furnish 150 of that amount."

"After being discharged and demobilized each prisoner receives a gratuity of 50 marks and pay for eight weeks, which equals another 300 marks. Germany will take similar measures for returned German civilians."

A hospital train from Rumania brought 23 wounded German officers who had been interned at Temesvar, including Generals Koch and Schoch.

ODDS AND ENDS.

ROCKFORD.—To prevent the shipment of dirty, germ infected, impure milk into the city hereafter amendments were added to the city milk ordinance by the city council that effect drastic changes in rules covering the milk supply delivered here.

AURORA.—The burning peat beds in the southeast part of the city, near Phillips park, have, so annoyed, Fire Chief H. J. Lohmann, and his assistants that he is seeking some plan for ridding the city of the nuisance.

ROCHELLE.—Rochelle, and vicinity is planning the most pretentious public entertainment in the history of the city in its "Fighters Barbecue" to be held in Southworth's grove in honor of the soldiers, sailors, marines and war workers of this section of the country. Thursday, Oct. 9. A fund of $2500 or more will be raised, a part of which is already placed to the committee's credit and the country will be placarded for 40 miles around advertising the affair. Tentative plans call for 1500 pounds of meat and three brass bands.

ROCKFORD.—Upon the action of the Board of Education at its meeting depends the submission of two important school matters to a referendum vote of the people for decision. The first concerns increased pay for school teachers and the second, free text books. Each involves the expenditure of additional sums of money which the board has no in its treasury and consequently can only be granted by increasing the tax rate for school purposes.

MOLINE.—Resolution that ministers of the Swedish Central conference receive a minimum salary of $1200 and house, presented by the laymen's conference to the ministerial conference this morning, was accepted with a vote of thanks.

CHAPTER LXIX.

"Why aren't you in bed?" So deep was I in my thoughts that I had not heard Everett return.

"Because I was not sleepy, and so thought I would wait for you."

"Well, I am here. Go at once. And when I say not wait for me, I mean it."

"How is James?" I asked, ignoring both of his words and his tone.

"He's getting along all right."

"I am very glad. I can't help feeling that it might have been I that man shot instead of James."

If I expected any leniency because of this appeal to his sympathies, I was disappointed. Evidently he had exhausted all he had to spare when he first heard of these tragic happenings of the day.

Finding he made no reply, and as I really was worn out, I quietly left the room, first holding up my face to be kissed as if it were a matter of course. Everett just touched my cheek with his lips, murmured 'good night,' and then I left him.

I fell asleep immediately, and did not awaken until Hetty brought my breakfast.

"Mr. Graham said we were not to disturb you," she said when I asked why I had not been called. "He told me to ask you to stay at home today as he was going to investigate the robbery."

It was a glorious morning and I regretted his commands—as I knew it was to remain in. But about 3 o'clock Hetty brought me Mr. Kemp's card.

Then I was elated I had not gone out—as I had thought of doing, regardless of Everett.

"You are sure you suffered no ill effects?" he asked, after I had told him I was perfectly all right.

"Indeed I did not!" I replied, then entertained him by telling him of the burglar and my flight. I mentioned the burglar's finding my ticket and he looked puzzled. I hastened to change the subject, but something he said before he left made me know he had understood.

"You had intended going with Mr. Graham?" he asked.

"Yes—but I missed the train."

I knew he thought it strange that Everett had not waited for me, but I made no explanation. What was the use? If I could only make him think me neglected. That would hurt my pride while it accomplished nothing.

When Everett came home, I told him Mr. Kemp had called to inquire after me.

"You saw him?"

"Of course."

"It wasn't at all necessary. You could have sent him word by Hetty. I prefer you should not receive men callers," he snarled very coldly.

"I certainly shall not refuse to receive people when I am at home. If you do treat me like a child I don't wish everyone to know it, and so have something to talk about."

"I do not understand you," still severely.

"They would say you don't—trust me." I often found myself puzzled as to what reply to make to Everett.

"What people think is no concern of yours."

"But it is, Everett! You do not understand. It makes me feel so inferior." I had hesitated for a word. Then without waiting for a reply, I said 'good night' and left the room.

As I climbed the stairs my eyes filled with tears. I had tried to do as I thought Leola would do, and instead of acting as if he loved me, as he had her, he was cold and distant.

"I hate her!" I said vehemently. "I hate to be second wife. If I had known I wouldn't—yes I would too, because I to love you, Everett, and you don't love me. But I'll make you! Just like Leola did! I'll let you see I can be indifferent, that I am not afraid of you, and that I can enjoy myself. Then you will be afraid you will lose me, just as you feared to lose her, and we will be happy."

I see now how more than childish I was. Then I only thought of rivaling Leola in his affections, and to do so I must do as she had done—make him afraid he might lose me.

I was too young, too immature, to take into account the fact that having seen his mistake with her, he was not apt to repeat it with me.

Eleven Great Church Bodies in Conference

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 10.—Eleven great church bodies, exclusive of the Roman Catholic, will participate in the great new world church conference on faith and order, to be held in 1920, according to a report to be presented at the general convention of the Episcopal church here, Oct. 8 to 27.

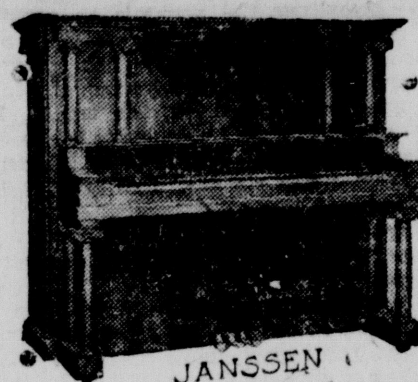

The heads of these organizations, according to the report, have signed pledges presented by the world touring Episcopal bishops, to co-operate in the conference. The report adds that the Episcopal delegates were courteously received by the pope, who expressed approval of the conference as a means of setting together all communions "not in union with the chair of St. Peter" but held that the teachings and practices of the Roman Catholic church precluded its participation.

The 1920 conference, it is stated, will be the largest ecumenical council in the history of the world, each of the eleven church bodies attending autonomous churches. The eleven great bodies are: Anglican, Baptist, Congregational, Eastern churches, Friends, Lutheran, Methodist, Moravian, Old Catholic, Presbyterian and Reformed South India United church.

Marine Accidents in 1919 Are Costly One!

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 10.—The chapter of marine accidents along the great lakes in August and the latter part of July has been a serious and costly one setting a record for a similar period for recent years.

Total losses of vessels for six weeks probably will include the steamer Captain Dunn, formerly the Hecla, which sank in Quebec harbor. This vessel sailed the great lakes for many years. The only passenger steamer concerned in a serious accident was the Huron of the Northern Navigation Co. fleet, a big Canadian craft running from Detroit to Port Arthur. The Huron while leaving a dry dock at Port Arthur, collided with a dredge.

The ore carrier D. W. Mills was badly damaged after going on Ford Shoals, where she was pounded by heavy seas. The Mills is one of the largest lake boats. The Cabotia was seriously injured when she went on the ground at Main Dicks, Lake Ontario.

The Landbo, with a cargo of coal which foundered off Port Au Sale Lake Huron, over a month ago, was sold by the underwriters after being abandoned by the owners. It was necessary to lighten 800 tons of her cargo before she could be raised and towed to St. Ignace.

The lumber barge Delta, whose tow line parted, permitting her to drift off the Lake Michigan beach near Grand Haven, is a total loss, with her 40,000 feet of lumber, cargo, scattered along the east coast.

Marine men look for fewer accidents on the great lakes this fall than usual as scores of the carriers have been laid up for the season because of the dock strike on Lake Superior and lack of coal cargoes at lower lake ports.

Pershing's Town in Missouri Unchanged

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Laclede, Mo., Sept. 10.—When Gen. Pershing visits this town, the place of his birth, which he has promised to do, probably next month, he will find things little changed. Many persons whom he knew as a boy are still here and the march of industrial progress has not so far soiled the town; certainly nothing has been marred. Mostly he will find the same friends living in the same houses that they did a generation ago; exchanging local gossip in the same cozy stoves, going to the same churches and their offspring attending the same schools.

The local committee is striving for a program which while reflecting the pride felt in the city's most distinguished representative, will at the same time revive in the guests the feeling that he is among home folk.

"In essentials the place is so little changed that I think he can turn back the clock forty years without much effort of the imagination," said Mayor Allen.

There will be music and oratory, and a holiday throughout the entire countryside, and of all the fried chicken which promises to feature the feasting the tenderest and most succulent will be available to the general at every board.

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR KIDNEYS ACT BADLY

Take tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Drink lots of water.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

Clear, Peachy Skin Awaits Anyone Who Drinks Hot Water

Says an Inside Bath, before breakfast helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Sparkling and vivacious—merry, bright, alert—a good, clear skin and a natural, rosy, healthy complexion are assured only by pure blood. If only every man and woman could be induced to adopt the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of the thousands of sickly, anemic-looking men, women and girls, with pale or muddy complexions; instead of the multi-plies of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and "peevishness" we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. O wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance, awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. O We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

BREAK IN PRICE
OF HOGS CAUSES
CORN TO GO OFF

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Sept. 10.—Fresh weakness developed in the corn market today largely as a result of the fact that hog prices had undergone sharp new breaks. Bearish sentiment was emphasized too by rains and moderate temperature. Selling, however, was not aggressive. Opening prices, which ranged from 1c decline to ½c advance, with Sept. 1.62 to 1.62½ and Dec. 1.28½ to 1.28¾, were followed by a decided general setback. Oats were easier in sympathy with corn. After opening ½c to ¾c off, including Dec. 72½c to 73c, the market rallied a little, and then sagged again. Provisions promptly reflected the downturn in the value of hogs and grain. Most of the trading was in lard. On the decline, commission houses turned to the buying side, and brought about a rally. Some purchasers took the ground that bearish conditions had been more than discounted for the time being. The close, however, was weak, ¾c to 2c net lower, with Sept. 1.59¾ to 1.60 and Dec. 1.28 to 1.28½.

AMUSEMENTS

"TH REVELATIONS OF A WIFE."
Was it jealousy, neglect, mother-in-law or extravagance; are a few of the important subjects discussed in a dramatic way in that new offering "The Revelations of a Wife," that is offered for your approval at Dixon opera house for Thursday night, September 11. The play is hard to describe on account of being a mystery play and has to be seen to be appreciated. It deals with a much discussed problem, "Marriage and Divorce," and solves a question "Should or should she not tell her husband all her past life?" It is a daring subject handled in a delicate manner and outside of the mysteries surrounding it, will no doubt solve a great question that has worried the minds of a great many girls contemplating matrimony. The management has sent it en tour with a strong Broadway cast and a production far above the average.

When Tobacco Was Taboo.

In 1638 the Massachusetts general court ordered, a writer comments, "that no man shall take any tobacco within 20 poles of any house, or so near as may endanger the same." In 1798 an act was passed forbidding the carrying of fire through the streets except in a covered vessel, smoking, or having in one's possession "any lighted pipe or segar" in the streets or on the wharves. The penalty was $2. If the offender was in a ropewalk, the penalty was from $5 to $100. This prohibition of 1798 was not repealed until 1880.
